Whom I beseech to give us such grace, with faith, hope and charity at our departing out of this miserable world, to come to the fruition of his Godhead in joy everlasting, Amen. Your loving brother, OrrwiLL Johfbot. With my hearty commendations untojtr. Cave and Mrs. Cave, not forgetting my sister, your wife: I pray you to let them be made partakers of this last news, for surely it is well worth the knowledge. 1 That doubts were entertained of the guilt of this unhappy queen may be gathered from the misgivings of the lord chancellor after the first reading of the bill for her attainder, and also from the following contemporary notice among...
