H. R. Jlooknau, Grinnell, Iowa. The first essential to success with anything is to get the ideal pictured in the mind. It is thus with a cement foundation. As I have it pictured, it must be moulded into place without any wooden window or door frames. Cement is to take the place of stone and brick and, to a large extent, of lumber. Our experience with stone has been unprofitable. Everything we have been able to find has decayed and crumbled to pieces, so why should we try to imitate a stone finish? It is my opinion that it is only a question of time with the cement block. I am well aware of the fact that a great many...
