By repeated resolutions, U. is association stands commi ted to the Township System of schools. Your honored president lias been its most persistent as he was perhaps its earliest advocate. The State Superintendent, the official head of our school system, but especially your direct representative, has made his advocacy of this change the most memorable feature of his administration. Now that this matter is to be brought to an issue, it becomes you, as it certainly does me, representing a tchool jourual committed to this movement, to be ah e to justify the faith which is in us. I therefore ask your consideration of such tacts as I have been able to gather from the history and preseut condition of our school-system, which bear upon the question before us. The first fact to which I would call your attention is that we have at present no effective supervision of district schools. This is at once established by statistics. The only supervision of more than 11, 000 school districts is by 112 district Commissioners, an average to each officer of more than 100 schools, scattered over an average area of 400 square miles. If the Commissioner has nothing else to do, and can afford to own and keep a good horse and wagon, he may be able to visit each of these schools twice during the 140 days each y ar the law requires them to be in session. In the Code of Public Instruction, it...
