Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might. --Ecclesiastes 9:10. Not by might nor by power but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts [Forces].--Zech. 4:6. Every human being is a dynamo of concentrated, creative energy, ever seeking avenues of expression. And when the right avenues have been found, and there is nothing that prevents the free and full manifestation of that energy, then heavenly joy is realized, and continues, as the fruits of that work return and glorify their source. Work is divine, and everyone who is normal in mind and body, loves work--not labor, but work, for there is a distinction between work and labor. The first is the creative activity of God, congenial, united with love, inspired, one with play and one with rest. True work is subject to our choice, never...
