The Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia has built several engines expressly for the consumption of lignite coal, such as mined in the Dakotas, the results being satisfactory. PROVIDENCE, R. I. March 6, 1902. Trade conditions are little changed here since last week. Dealers are generally buying only from hand to mouth, as with the anticipated discounts after April 1 are allowing their stocks to run pretty low and are only replenishing for immediate needs. Soft coal demands are steady and prices fairly firm. The higher grades obtain premiums when available, and this is helping the cheaper coals very materially. The teamsters strike was settled last week by the...
